I make the following statement in support of Kristina Aleksandrova Warren's permanent Partner visa application.

Visa Applicant's Details:
Family Name: Warren
Given Names: Kristina Aleksandrova
Duration of Acquaintance: Approximately 9 years, since early 2017

Applicant's Spouse:
Family Name: Warren
Given Names: Scott Phillip
Duration of Acquaintance: Since his birth in 1991, approximately 35 years
Nature of Relationship: Scott Phillip Warren is my son and Kristina Aleksandrova Warren is my daughter-in-law.

How I know Scott and Kristina:

1. I first became acquainted with Kristina in early 2017 through WhatsApp messages and video calls. I met her in person in early 2019 when she came to Australia for a family wedding, and we celebrated Scott and Kristina's engagement with our extended family.

2. Kristina and Scott stayed with me during visits to Australia, including Christmas 2022. I visited them in their home in Sofia in 2022 and again in 2023 for their wedding. I met Kristina's family on both visits and remain in contact with her mother through WhatsApp or Messenger.

3. I spent Christmas 2024 with Scott and Kristina at their home in Urunga, near Coffs Harbour. Kristina, Scott, Kristina's mother and her mother's partner stayed with me at my home for a short holiday in April 2025. I also travelled with Scott and Kristina to Bulgaria in December 2025 and spent Christmas with Kristina's family.

4. I remain in regular contact with Scott and Kristina by telephone, video calls and messages. Through our ongoing contact and family visits, I continue to observe them supporting each other and planning their future together as a married couple.

Belief in the Relationship:

5. I believe Kristina and Scott's marital relationship is genuine and continuing. They have been together since at least 2017, travelled extensively, established a home together in Sofia, and married in Bulgaria in July 2023 after dating and living together for several years.

6. I have observed their commitment during their visits to Australia and my visits to Bulgaria. Both families and extended families have embraced them as a couple, and their shared life and regular communication demonstrate a committed marriage.

7. They moved to New South Wales in late 2024 and now live together in Coffs Harbour. I continue to see them make decisions together about their home, work and future.

Additional Information:

8. As Scott's mother, I fully support Kristina and Scott's permanent Partner visa application. My relationship with them has allowed me to observe their relationship over many years, both in person and through regular contact.
