MUST READ - Paying for Hotels

Any hotel that says "Payment at Hotel" requires you to pay for the whole stay using a personal credit card. These include Atlassian Negotiated / Preferred hotels.

If paying on a personal credit card is not an option, please select a hotel that says "Payment by My Company", "Bill My Company" or the like. There is one caveat: if, under the Hotel Rules & Restrictions section, it says something such as "your credit card is used to guarantee your reservation" this means that you will need to pay for the whole stay.

One other general note: non-refundable hotel rates are instant purchases and will not go for approval. If you are selecting one of these hotels, please be certain you require this type of booking prior to finalizing your reservation. Otherwise Atlassian will be subject to cancellation fees.

For a list of Atlassian's preferred hotels, visit go/hotels.

For questions please ping #help-gday in Slack.

ISOS: Travel Assistance Services

As you get ready to take off, we want to ensure you're safe and secure.

Atlassian is partnering with International SOS (ISOS) to offer travel assistance services for unexpected issues such as lost passports, urgent medical assistance, lost baggage, and more for eligible Atlassians (full and part-time employees are eligible; contractors are ineligible for this service) and their dependents while traveling for business. You can view complete download and setup instructions, eligibility requirements, and coverage details on the Business Travel Insurance page.
